Attention Grabber

Tell the students to listen very carefully to the story about Rocket. You will be asking what SENSES he used in the story.

Rocket was heading to the park to play baseball. To get to the park, he had to cross two streets. The first street had a crosswalk signal. He saw that the signal said to walk! But he had to be sure, so he looked left... Then right... then left again... no cars! He stayed quiet and listened. No car sounds! Rocket walked across the first street. At the second street, there was a crosswalk but no signal. Rocket looked left, and right... there was a car coming so he waited. After the car passed, he looked left, right, and left again. This time there were no cars. Again, he listened as he walked. He did not hear any cars or horns. Soon, Rocket was at the park safely and all his friends were there waiting!

Ask the students to put their thumbs up if Rocket used the sense to cross the street or thumbs down if he didn't use the sense.

- Did Rocket use smell? (Thumbs down) Did Rocket use hearing? (Thumbs up)*
Did Rocket use touch? (Thumbs down) Did Rocket use sight? (Thumbs up)
Did Rocket use taste? (Thumbs down) Did Rocket use his 6th sense? (Thumbs down)

SENSE OF SAFETY & Beyond! Lesson Plan

Lesson: Activity Book, Pages 4-5

Lesson

Tell students that When you are crossing the street, you should look left, then right, then left again. Remember, if there are any cars coming, don't cross.

In your activity book, color page 4. On page 5, in each box, circle the way Rocket is looking, then color the page.

Extended Thinking

- What should you do before you cross the street?
- Why should you look left, then right, then left again?
- If the signal is green or shows a walk sign, do you still need to look left, then right, then left again, before you cross?
- Should you always cross in a crosswalk?
